

RANGELEY PUBLIC LIBRARY February 2022 Newsletter

Dear Scott,

"Are we there yet?" We all know that refrain from traveling with children. It doesn't matter how far we are traveling, to a child, even short distances in the car with nothing to do seem interminable. Come to think of it, traveling any distance, maybe just to Farmington and back, can seem pretty interminable to some of us adults too. That is why you may want to check out Rangeley Public Library's audiobook collection. Thanks to some funding from the American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA), we have a number of new audiobooks coming to our collection over the next several months, as well as many new DVDs. You can see a list of the titles we expect to arrive in February further down in this newsletter. At a time when many of us are spending many hours on our own, we hope that you will appreciate one or more of the varied titles in our collection.

Happy Reading,

Janet Wilson, Director
