

RANGELEY PUBLIC LIBRARY

August 2022 Newsletter

Dear Scott,

If you have been into the library recently, you have probably noticed that it is a busy place! There are lots of programs happening for both children and adults. People are here using the internet, checking out books and movies, or just catching up with friends. Yet, in the midst of the busyness, there is a calm, friendly vibe. We really appreciate the patience of our older patrons when they find themselves waiting in line while a child checks out mountains of picture books. (In fact, most are very pleased to see that children still do enjoy reading!) We appreciate the way that library users willingly change locations when a scheduled book group or other program needs the space they are occupying. We love being a busy, multi-generational facility where people actually enjoy being around each other. Thanks for helping to make this the welcoming, friendly place that we have all come to love. Keep up the good work! Our world needs more welcoming friendly places.

Stop by soon,

Janet Wilson, Director
