

RANGELEY PUBLIC LIBRARY

November 2023 Newsletter

Dear Library Patron,

Every once in a while, I read a book that I want to recommend to everyone. Now is one of those times. I recently read The Water Keeper by Charles Martin. It came out in 2020, so some of you have already read it, but since it came out during the time that our library was closed because of COVID shutdowns, I am guessing that many of you missed it. It is a work of fiction dealing with the issue of modern-day slavery. But while dealing with this heavy topic, Martin manages to keep a hopeful tone. It is a book with so many layers that I have a hard time defining its genre. It is action and adventure, romance, drama, and more. Martin explores themes of trust, self-worth, redemption, and the power of love to bring healing. It was hard to put down, and I can't wait until I have time to read the next book in the series!

Keep Reading!
